

A GALLO CENTER REPERTORY COMPANY PRODUCTION

JOHN STEINBECK'S

OF MICE AND MEN

DIRECTED BY MICHAEL LYNCH

TIME: 1937

PLACE: California's Central Valley

There will be one 15 minute intermission

Presented by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc., New York.

Of Mice and Men contains mature themes and content. The show depicts various forms of violence, including murder. Characters use profanity freely, including racist language from the original book that is considered true to the era in which the story is set. The Gallo Center consulted with leaders from the local African American community, who recommended retaining the language in the interest of historical accuracy.

This production contains gunshots.

Any video and/or audio recording of this production is strictly prohibited.
